While we are basking in summer sunshine and really wishing for a bit of rain, our friends to the south of us are battling the after effects of devastating rains that created epic flooding. It is weird that something as basic as water can create very diverse outcomes.

It seems as though we are surrounded by vast differences of opinion. What seems so right to some seems so wrong to others. And I often think that somewhere in the middle lies the truth. Sadly, pride and human nature does not allow us to go to the common area. A catastrophe like the one in Texas, hopefully reminds us that there is much that we can agree on: everyone deserves to be safe and cared for. It is a right for everyone. It is not a privilege for just a few.

Please consider supporting the Red Cross or another credible agency that is always there in times of disaster. Many families will need support long after the cameras have gone and the ground is dry again.

FRIENDLY HOUSE HAPPENINGS

On Tuesday, August 8, the Davenport Morning Optimists held their annual “Golf for Youth” tourney at Oakwood Country Club. Friendly House will receive some of the proceeds from the event. Thank you to the Optimists and all of this year’s participants for their support.

On Friday, August 18, Friendly House held our first annual Trivia Night at the Knights of Columbus Hall. We had a total of 30 teams competing for the top prize. There was also a raffle, 50/50 drawing and Heads or Tails games. Overall we raised more than $3,700 for Friendly House programs. Thanks to all who participated and donated!
